12+ years in marketing and sales. I build marketing around revenue — from strategy and team to end-to-end analytics. Currently driving B2B marketing and lead generation in IT and cybersecurity, while also serving as CMO for Kazakhstan-based distributors of global brands. I put AI to work in marketing, launch my own mobile apps, run events, and train teams.

12+ years in marketing and sales	$250K+ in revenue tracked to closed deals: CRM, 1C, Roistat	50+ niches, from HoReCa and retail to medical aesthetics and B2B IT	100+ talks and workshops across Russia and Kazakhstan	3,000+ people took my program on producing online courses

That's where I learned to check regulatory requirements before any campaign goes live.

WHAT I OWN AS CMO

01

Strategy

Positioning, market and competitor analysis, channel planning — online and offline.

02

Team

Hiring, training, and motivating marketers, SMM specialists, designers, and copywriters.

03

Budget & KPIs

Budget allocation, spend control, and CPA, ROI, and LTV for every channel.

04

Leads & sales

Lead quality criteria, handoff to sales, and sales enablement materials.

05

Brand

Visual identity, tone of voice, PR, events, and collaborations.

06

Analytics

Full-funnel metrics, regular reporting, and fast tests of new channels.

AI IN MARKETING — HANDS-ON

Agents for ads and analytics

Meta, Google Ads, LinkedIn, and GA4 reports pulled via API: spend, leads, cost per lead — no manual exports.

Content at scale

Multilingual SEO blogs: generation, editing, and publishing as a single pipeline.

Products built with AI agents

Six mobile apps built and shipped with AI coding agents.

AI playbooks for the team

A library of prompts and agents for marketing tasks: briefs, reports, sales collateral.
